THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY ALBERT PIKE & CO. MEMPHIS, TENN., SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1868. VOL. XVIII.—NO. 307

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognising the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern states in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, excluding Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplicity in the system and the discontinuance of the many boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and all enactments for the issue and the repeal of National forces enrolling the State militia in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and remain an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overturned the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizure.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judiciary tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is fixed and vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are reeling on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its president in March next as subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and proclaim that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert one form of government and consolidate in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be authorized, necessary or the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sales of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in the hour of peril.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, lending all the conservative elements and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in this present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and feel all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

TENNESSE.

—We find the following items in the Nashville Banner: The city sexton has received instructions to lock up the gates of the cemetery after to-morrow, and allow no more persons to be buried there, in accordance with the law recently enacted by the City Council. Strange to say there have been no provisions made to provide burial ground elsewhere. Rich people can go to Mount Olivet, but what shall poor people do with their dead?

—A construction train will leave here to day, to put the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad in order, and the regular trains will be running in a week. The road has been leased a year and a half to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad Company, the lease being issued by Receiver Cliffe and President Burns. The lease will be submitted to the stockholders of each road, and either party may withdraw from it by giving thirty days' notice. It also provides for the payment of the employees and completion of the Huntingdon Branch by Receiver Cliffe. The railroad company are to report to the Receiver. The employees will be paid within a week, and perhaps as early as to-morrow.

—The Gazette of the 16th says: "Just for the fun of the thing, we yesterday asked John Cockrill, the negro leader of Davidson county Radicalism, what sort of a meeting Prosser's friends had the night before. John chuckled as only Joe Brown and the devil himself can chuckle, and the agents peculiarly African, said: 'Why, Lord bless you, mister, we had a there must have been at least fifteen hundred head there, and every single head hell bent again Prosser.' This tells badly against the pink of loyalty who edits the Press and Times, and would go to Congress for a little recreation. Before he makes the round trip, he will no doubt discover that some niggers, like some republics, are ungrateful.

ARKANSAS.

—The people of Ashley county are still intent on the prosecution of their favorite railroad enterprises. A meeting of the citizens of that locality was held in furtherance of that interest on the 4th inst.

—The White county Record says: One of the newly whitewashed was asked why the Legislature did not adjourn. He replied "dat de minority wanted to 'journ an' go home, but de majority hadn't no homes for to go to, an' thought they could take more money here." Sagacious, Searcy.

—The Jacksonport Herald says of the crops: "We have been assured by many of our farmers in this section that there never was such cheering prospects for good crops as there is now. The rains have been ample and at the right time, and in consequence everything is in splendid condition. Cotton never has looked so well—ditto corn. Our farmers have great cause to be thankful to the Giver of all good."

—We learn that the citizens of Woodruff county are busily engaged in securing the means necessary to the purchase of grounds and the erection of buildings required for the establishment of an Agricultural Association. We wish them every success.

—The Washington Telegraph says: The corn crop of the county has been suffering for rain and has been partly damaged. On Saturday it rained all around us, in some localities very hard, and in others but slightly. Appearances indicate another rain, which will not be objectionable. The cotton crops are doing fine.

—The Des Arc Citizen has the following items:

—We learn that our old county officers have surrendered their offices and turned over the books, etc., to the newly elected. They have left a fair record, and we wish them the greatest measure of success in their future undertakings; and that their successors may serve the people as well, and with as little complaint as they have done.

—We are jubilant over the crop prospect. Our farmers had dry weather until they got their crops clean and well worked, and just before they had sustained any injury from the dry weather the rains commenced, of which they have had an abundance. The people are in excellent spirits, no complaint coming from any quarter about making something to live on another year.

—The people of West Point and vicinity have determined upon having a grand barbecue at West Point on the 22d inst. It is intended as a kind of social reunion, where the people may meet and confer.

—The bill to remove the county site of Pulaski county from Brownsville to Devall's Bluff passed the House by a vote of 39 to 19.

Interesting and Valuable Curiosity.

A wonderful old document is at present in Canada, being nothing less than the skin or parchment signed 250 years ago by the Scottish people, and known as the "National Covenant of Scotland." The substance of the deed is written in a firm, beautiful hand, almost unique in its kind; the signatures of the noblemen, including the famous Montrose, and many of the others, are very distinct, as also are those obliterated in the blood of their subscribers, while the whole parchment is in a good state of preservation. This celebrated old document is without doubt a relict of the troublesome times which gave it existence. No era of Scotland's history claims more interest, or presents greater charm than the memorable year 1638, when on the 1st day of March its vigorous and high-minded people, oppressed by restrictions on their religious liberty, and roused to resistance by the attempts of the king and his ambitious prelate to violate their consciences by forcing upon them a liturgy opposed to their Presbyterian notion of simple worship, rose up en masse, and, with unanimity of views and feelings unparalleled, subscribed to the National Covenant of Scotland. The Covenant survived the crisis that called it forth. For the following fifty years the principles which produced a generation of heroes found their noblest exponents in the lives and sufferings of their sons. Purified in martyr blood, they triumphed in the cause of freedom, and left a legacy to succeeding generations, which, to us, was never more sensibly enjoyed than in the present age. For the past seventy years the document has been in the possession of a family of the name of Henderson, into whose grandfather's hands it came when he was senior Cameronian pastor in Scotland. The existence of the document is well known in the United Kingdom, where in most of the principal towns and places it has been shown.—Montreal Gazette.

—An old lady was buried in Jackson, Mich., a week or two ago, and the funeral was attended by two of her sons from the House of Correction in Detroit, and a third from the State prison—all under guard.

GEORGIA.

—"A dangerous admission"—the admission of Georgia into the Union under Radical rule.

—Hon.—Confederate—Quartermaster—Militia—Gen. H. R. McCay, the man with "nine bullet holes in his clothes," has been sent as a special ambassador to Washington by the Radicals in order to have those men of their party relieved of their disabilities who are affected by Bullock's message.

—The Radical Congress having refused, when they accepted Georgia's new Constitution, to give their consent to the relief swindle in it, ex-Gov. Brown, in order to further delude the people, is busily engaged in preparing a stay law and a reconstruction of the Supreme Court, which he thinks will answer the same purpose as the stricken clause.

—The gambling Lieutenant Colonel in the Yankee army who perpetrated such a gross outrage upon the citizens of Savannah last week, is, it appears, to go unpunished. Capt. McRobbin, who was ordered to investigate the matter, has returned to Atlanta, and all parties being willing, no Court of Inquiry will be convened. The officer is still under arrest but will soon be released.

—The Atlanta New Era says: Though the season for the past few days seems to have borrowed its temperature from the regions of "Tartarus down below Avernus," we have still enjoyed the occasional luxury of a refreshing shower. The thirsty earth drank up every drop that fell, and we have reason to believe that enough has fallen to have a most excellent effect upon the corn and cotton crop. So mote it be.

—The cars on the Selma, Rome and Dalton railways, are now running to Griffith's Mills, a point eight miles this side of Cross Plains, and distant only thirty miles from Rome. Good accommodations are made to transport passengers across this gap. This railroad will, in all probability, be completed to Rome by the 15th of September. Mr. Geo. Hazlehurst, the able President of the Macon and Brunswick railroad company, has completed arrangements with Northern capitalists by which that road will be finished in eighteen months. Forty-six miles of iron are already in Brunswick. It will connect with the Atlantic and Gulf road by Christmas. Near fifty miles of grading on that end are already finished.

ALABAMA.

—In Selma, three soldiers of the U. S. garrison at that point, had their heads shaved and were drummed out of the service, on Wednesday last. Crime, highway robbery.

—It is gratifying to note that through the liberality of one of our most public-spirited citizens, who has donated the land for the purpose, the workshops of the New Orleans and Chattanooga Railroad Company will be established at this place.—Mobile Register.

—From all accounts the crop of sweet potatoes in this section will be very large. All that is desired is a good shower two or three times a week. The recent showers have done the vines an immensity of good.—Mobile Tribune.

—The Mobile Register, speaking of the new State government of Alabama, says: Looking at the list of the new State government in John Hardy's paper, it looks as if some tinker of a devil had taken man to pieces, and in putting him together again had put the bowels where the brains ought to be.

—There were entered in the land office at Huntsville in three months ending June 30th, 1868, 31,510 acres of land: In April, 6,495 acres; May, 12,924 acres, and in June, 12,089 acres.

"Footprints on the Sand"—Novel Mode of Catching a Thief.

About three weeks ago, Clark Mills, Esq., the eminent sculptor, had stolen from his studio pieces of copper castings, which were portions of a statue which he is now engaged in perfecting. Searching around his premises for traces of the thieves, he discovered good "signs" in the shape of several fearfully large footprints.

The sculptor, after considering a moment, concluded that here was a field for his art, and acting upon the idea, promptly prepared his plaster, and took several good "casts" of the footprints. Armed with these "witnesses for the prosecution," he proceeded to police headquarters, made known his loss, and showed to the officers the clue he had to the thieves.

The case was placed in the hands of Detectives Miller and Coomes for the purpose of hunting up the thieves. These energetic officers have been hard at work ever since the robbery was reported, actively engaged in taking "bird's-eye views" of all the large flat-footed negroes who for two or three weeks past have been making business calls upon Mayor Bowen.

Up to yesterday Mr. Miller had been unsuccessful, but his heart was made glad, by descrying two negro men whose feet looked like they might fit the plaster casts. He promptly arrested them, and, upon being conveyed to police headquarters, it was found that the plaster casts made by Mr. Mills fitted exactly. To say that the negroes were dumbfounded would not describe their astonishment. Suffice it for our purpose to state that the evidence obtained shows that the detectives have made the right arrest, and that justice will be meted out to the thieves. Their names are Lewis Medley and John Shorter, and one of them has a foot certainly fourteen inches long and four inches wide.

They will have a hearing to-day before Justice D. R. Smith.

The result of this operation of the detectives show that men can be brought to justice in more ways than one.

Our readers will have noticed that recently the late President of the Confederate States, Mr. Jefferson Davis, fell from a stairway, in Montreal, and was injured, as it was then thought, slightly. We regret to inform them that a letter has just been received from a member of his family, saying that three of his ribs were broken. At his period of life, a fracture is not so easily re-cemented. But he was doing well when the letter was written.

NAILED TO THE COUNTER.

In order to obtain an opportunity to ask what amount of taxes the Editor of the APPEAL pays, the Bulletin asserted, some days ago, that in addressing the people of Memphis in mass meeting assembled, a week ago, he spoke of carpet-baggers and scalawags who paid no taxes.

When we are provoked to reply to a personality, we do not care to be in haste about it, especially when the summer heat has made us indolent. If the Bulletin wished to be impertinent, it would have been better for it not to have resorted to its imagination for facts to warrant an indecency.

We did not inquire into the amount of taxes paid by anybody, and least of all by a political antagonist. We supposed, indeed, that those who rule us here in Memphis had sufficiently enriched themselves by many diligent courses, to pay respectable sums into the treasuries of the State and Nation.

We should be ashamed if the close of the civil war had found us worth enough to be proud of the amount of taxes extracted from us by the State and Federal publicans. We are more than content, we are proud, to be poor. We do not regret it, that the proceeds of the sale of valuable property of ours are in the Treasury of the United States, or that the sacrificed property is held, as we understand, by the wife of Schenck of Ohio. Let each enjoy the ill-gotten gain. Other lands have been swept from us by exorbitant taxation. It may be wise, but it is certainly not very manly, to taunt Confederates with their poverty. No Southern man, we imagine, is ashamed of it, or would have his condition other than if it is, if, to have had it different, he must have abandoned or betrayed the cause of his State.

We only wish we paid less taxes than we do; for every dollar extorted by way of tax from a disfranchised man, is a dollar of which he is robbed. The sense of injustice will be hardly sharper under which we shall smart, when the Bulletin succeeds in persuading the Czar of Tennessee to billet his ragamuffin State soldiery on the citizens of Memphis, as it insolently threatens shall be done.

TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION.

It is not wise, as it is not necessary, to weaken the case of the disfranchised citizens of Tennessee, whom an enactment that is null and void, and a decision that has destroyed all confidence in the Supreme Court of the State, and is its shame and stigma, have disfranchised, by crying out that they are taxed without being represented, as a matter of individual complaint.

But when a majority of the people of a State, as is the case in some, or even sixty or eighty thousand, as is the case in Tennessee, are thus disfranchised, it is the exclusion of a class from representation, and the case becomes like that of a whole community. Then, coupled with the unlawfulness of our disfranchisement on other grounds, it immensely aggravates the wrong, and make the robbery of the right more utterly inexcusable. According to human justice, at any rate, the enormity of a crime is in proportion to its consequences, except in the case of political crimes which ruin States and produce civil wars. At all events, he who robs us of our most valuable goods or dearest rights, does us the greatest injury, and deserves at our hands the severest punishment.

Therefore we have said, and we repeat, that he who labors to continue our disfranchisement, is a personal enemy. It is useless for him to smile, and profess personal respect, and demand the amenities of political controversy. It is not a political controversy,—that between us and him. One might as well call a struggle for life with a burglar or a bravo a political controversy. He who endeavors to wrong and rob me, to reduce me to a condition of inferiority to the freed negro, is as much my personal enemy, as he who impoverishes me by robbing my safe, or endeavors to stab me under the fifth rib. But it does not follow that we are to seek, in retaliation, to rob or murder him: that we are to resort to force to remedy the wrong. We do not force an open and deadly quarrel on every personal enemy; but, unless we are hypocrites or politic we do decline to meet him as a friend, or treat him as a generous antagonist.

Tennessee is on the high road to bankruptcy, in consequence of the wasteful and corrupt expenditures of its Jacobin rulers, and enormous taxes are eating out the substance of the people. For this reason the right to vote is more important to us, because without it it is not possible for us to cure the malady and distemper of the State, arrest the squandering of its means and the licentious contracting of debts, and cut out the cancers of corruption from the emaciated body-politic of the State.

With this right to vote withholden from all except those of a single party or faction, there is no responsibility to guarantee honesty of conduct in our rulers and legislators. Their party sustains them in whatever they do; and the disfranchised cannot even find the means to learn the damning facts. The registration of voters is entirely under the control of the Governor, who may appoint registrars at pleasure, and annul the registration of all the voters of a county, without being required to give any reason for doing so. The consequence of this omnipotence of a party is, that there is no real republicanism in Tennessee, because no ruler or legislator is responsible to the people, or need fear any rebuke, if guilty of corruption, extortion or the unlawful exercise of arbitrary power. The school fund is gone,—how, no one seems to know. Is any one made responsible for the disappearance of that large and important fund? No one. The silence of the grave shrouds the whole transaction; because those who shared the fund among them belong to the dominant party in the State, and it would perhaps suffer by their exposure. It is not likely that it would suffer; for when a Government is so organized, and all the opposition are disfranchised, frauds and malfeasances serve as cohesive forces to bind them more closely together. Party always protects and defends its knaves. That is one of its necessities.

A Government so organized, and which has so annihilated opposition, as that it can only talk and not act, becomes an oligarchy of the chiefs and managers, sustained by the masses, in this case black as well as white, who are the majority below them, and who will continue to support them, no matter what they do. The government of Tennessee is utterly irresponsible; and this oligarchy possesses the tremendous power of imposing such burthens as they please on the property of those whom they disfranchize. They hold the purse and the sword, and in the Tribunals men preside by no other warrant than the sovereign will and pleasure of the one man, who assumes the airs and titulates the follies of royalty.

The Declaration of Independence preferred this, among other articles of impeachment against the King of Great Britain:

"He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the Legislature—a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only."

And it impeached him, also, "For imposing taxes on us without our consent."

When the Constitution was made, the great struggle for the principle that taxation and representation should go hand-in-hand, was not forgotten, and it was embedied in that instrument, in the most positive and distinct manner, by these two provisions:

"Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined, etc."

"No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken."

The Constitution thus declared its recognition of the principle that each State should be taxed, not according to its wealth, nor even to the number of its population, but in proportion to its representation in the lower House of Congress. Not according to numbers, because each State, however small, was to have one Representative, and so perhaps might be taxed out of proportion to its numbers; and the States in which slavery existed were allowed representation for three-fifths only of their slaves, and could only be taxed in the same proportion. Not only is no authority given to the United States by the Constitution to tax incomes and earnings a certain per centum, but the power to do it is positively excluded. If Congress had determined what amount of money to raise by direct taxation, and apportioned it among the States according to representation, New York would probably not pay one dollar where she now pays fifty, and the burthen of the new and poor States would be proportionately increased. The people of each State would pay, as it was intended they should pay, in proportion to their political power in the Union. The effect of emancipation will be, after the next census, to increase the political power of the South, all the negroes being counted in ascertaining the numbers of their population; while the immense number of white men who are disfranchised, will be counted to increase the amount of tax to be apportioned to each State. By this process, the burthen of taxation of each of these is doubly increased: first, by the addition of two-fifths of the negroes, in ascertaining the number of the population; and second by the inclusion of themselves in the count, though they are without a vote, and have no political power.

To disfranchise a man, therefore, and tax him nevertheless, is as contrary to the spirit of the Constitution as it is to the dictates of natural justice. What is just for the State is just for the individual.

No people in the world will long submit, without an attempt to throw off the burthen, to be taxed without being represented. No people ought to do it. No large class of proscribed individuals ought to do it. And wherever this oppression exists, and wherever faction rules and disfranchises great numbers of persons and the proletaires who have no property levy such taxes on property as they please, "Extortion will be the Assessor, Fraud the Cashier, Confusion the Accountant, Concealment the Reporter, and Oblivion the Remembrancer." In the words of Burke: "An arbitrary system must always be a corrupt one. There never was a man who thought he had no law but his own will, who did not soon find that he had no end but his own profit."

All injustices ultimately turn upon and rend their authors. The disfranchisement of large bodies of men, used to exercising the right of voting, and whom their enemies still continue to tax, ends in their impoverishment, while its consequences are increased taxation to meet wasteful expenditures; and at last the burthen thus created or increased shifts to the shoulders of the men to whose folly it is owing, and they find that more things than chickens and curses come home to roost.

"Tyranny is a poor provider. It knows neither how to accumulate, nor how to extend." But it well knows how to exasperate and to arouse hatreds that last longer than a lifetime. We necessarily hate those who oppress us and tax us without our consent.

NEW YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

NEW YORK, July 14, 1868.

Since I last wrote you I have been industriously endeavoring to learn the true status of our Merchants' National Bank, and the financial condition of the State, with a view to the enlightenment of the Memphis public in regard to the former, and that of the United States in regard to the latter.

When the Merchants' National was suddenly and unexpectedly closed by the Government Examiner, it was currently reported in Memphis that the institution, presided over by an old and honored citizen of Tennessee, and of which the Directors were all well known business men and lawyers, was so much worse than bankrupt that the capital stock ($500,000) was gone and with it $150,000 of depositors' money. That this was not true I need hardly tell you, as by the time this reaches you the assets of the bank will be in the hands of its officers, and the institution be once again on its legs. This result has been reached after most industrious efforts on the part of those concerned, and the most thorough investigation of the bank's affairs by the Comptroller of the Treasury. To the general public it will seem an irreconcilable enigma that a bank, standing so well, should thus be injured in their estimation without cause and without such an investigation and lapse of time as might have prevented so dire consequences to our commercial interests and endangerment of the credit of honorable men. But if you will take the trouble to investigate the matter "at home," you will discover the close connection of another national bank with a piece of treachery that would give the run and control of very much if not most of our exchange and deposit business. You will learn that this busy-body national bank was to become the bond of a Receiver for the Merchants', in return for which deposit of trust said Receiver was to turn over the collections and other business of the closed bank, whereby a snug little sum was to be netted to a concern that any day might go by the board, if only left to the patronage of the Radicals it supports and protects in power. A nice little game, for the monopoly of the banking business has been spoiled, and our own people, whose only error is a too confiding trust and confidence in their fellow business men, are likely to come out "all right." There are always wheels within wheels. This affair of the Merchants' National illustrates the present. For want of that associated effort which distinguishes St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago and New York our merchants are as subject to the fluctuations of rumor as to our mercantile affairs as if strangers to the corporate limits of Memphis, hence they, as well as the general public, fall an easy prey to any apparently fair statement, especially when coupled with results like the closing of this bank. Then, too, there is too much eagerness to kick down the bill the man who has begun to tumble; and the smile and smirk of selfish jealousy often lights faces in Memphis that should express rather sympathy and regret. The Merchants' National was guilty of dereliction as to the National Bank Law, but otherwise I am well persuaded it was solvent, or if any loss, such only was to fall on the stockholders. Now take the statement of almost any National Bank, one of ours for instance, and you will see that this law has been many times violated without drawing such consequences as followed in the instance I write of, and that such could only have occurred as the result of a determination to break down our own people and an institution most important at this time, especially to our commercial welfare.

AS TO STATE FINANCES

I am well assured that the State authorities have counsel with certain influential parties connected with our East Tennessee railroads, whereby the July interest on the bonds of these roads has been withheld with a view to enable both to make fortunes from the failures. These parties through their agents here are selling these bonds short, under the excitement occasioned by this failure, throwing down the market to enable them to buy in again at a depressed rate, and so become the sole possessors of a property that should rank with the best securities in the country. This, coupled with the Merchants' National and several discreditable financial schemes of Brownlow's pets that have transpired, proves not only the dishonesty of the Radicals, but their unfitness to be the repositories of State trust in any degree. Never was State cursed as Tennessee is with a pack of thieves. From a cent up, they disdain no transaction that will help them in their nefarious plans. We know only in part in Memphis; in New York, one learns fully. Here the glamour is lifted, and seeing no longer as through a glass darkly the hideous and naked deformity of Brownlowism stands revealed as the darkest and dirtiest phase of Radicalism in the United States. Faugh! I am disgusted with the subject, and turn to another of fairer import and more promising.

STATE GRIEVANCES.

The document presented to the National Convention, and prepared by our townsman, Judge Brown, is likely to become a campaign paper of great weight. Its elucidation of our political and financial condition is so searching and thorough, that it is deemed wise to give it an extensive circulation, embracing every part of our country. As well posted as Democrats supposed themselves as to our condition, they were surprised to find how little they knew of it by the light of this important paper. It has been read eagerly here by all classes and pretty ably discussed, although the Radical organs, feeling their inability to combat its statements, have passed it in discreet silence. It has drawn to us the sympathy of good people from all the States, and serves as a warning to old-Reform communities of what they may come to unless they can kill Radicalism at the ballot-box. I trust and hope that all our papers will give it general circulation, and that in Arkansas, Mississippi and other contiguous States it will be sent into every house, a melancholy statement of our grievances.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

I learn reliably that Dr. Leftwich has been elected by his fellow members of the National Democratic Committee a member of the Executive Committee of that body, a position that will enable him to be of great service in the canvass to come, not only to our State, but in our section.

I also learn that this committee have made ample arrangements for the campaign, which it is proposed to open in Maine at once, and New York, in a few weeks, vigorously and ably. Mr. Chas. Cameron, of Arkansas, has, I believe, been selected as one of the canvassers for Maine, where he will at once inaugurate the movement.

FORREST AND WASHBURNE.

These distinguished Generals met in the hall of the St. Nicholas for the first time yesterday. They were introduced to each other by Mr. Jesse W. Page, jr., and for a time enjoyed a quiet and social chat about the late war and the present political condition of the country.

HONORS TO SOUTHERN DELEGATES.

A dinner was given at Delmonico's last night to the remaining Southern delegates, by leading members of the Democratic party, at which Tennessee was represented by Gens. Forrest and Bate, Judge Brown, and others, whose names I have not been able to ascertain. It was a grand affair, worthy of New Yorkers and their guests. J. M. K.

—The New York Independent has choked off its ancient contributor, Prof. Finney, who tried in its columns to revive the anti-Masonic excitement. Not satisfied with retailing "Morgan" with improvements of his own, that veracious individual made a terrific exposure of a Masonic degree which has no existence here or elsewhere. The "Order of the Cross, we believe, was the title of this fictitious degree. It is wholly imaginary, and there is no person living who ever took such a degree, or even heard of its existence, until the fertile brain of Finney gave birth to it. Probably the attention of the editors of the Independent was called to this flight of Finney's imagination, and they saw the propriety of discontinuing his rather heavy romance. We unhesitatingly deny the existence of this pretended degree, and call upon Finney to produce any evidence to show that it is not purely a fiction.

—Seth Green, the down-east shad-hatcher, says: "Every acre of water is worth two of land, and it can be 'tilled' at one-thousandth part of the expense."

—The internal revenue officers at Washington have discovered that the tax on sales provided for in a law passed in March, applies to the sales of newspapers.

—Medical men in Cuba have pronounced pineapples of this year's growth as dangerous to health, and given their positive opinion against the propriety of eating them.

The bulk of the evidence goes to show that the Chief of Ordnance and other parties, from alleged interested motives, persisted in issuing projectiles which had been condemned, after due examination into their merits. The committee conclude the report by recommending Brevet Brig.-Gen. Dyer for the position of Chief of Ordnance.

The weather was slightly cooler to-day. There were six or seven deaths from the heat yesterday and early this morning, including among them James Magill, employed for several years past as messenger in the Treasurer's office.

The Senate to-day confirmed Julius M. D. Maguirtly, of Kentucky, as Consul at Port Tobacco, and E. A. Springman, of Pennsylvania, as Consul at Fumbay, Peru; and rejected the nomination of Francis Price, of New York, as Consul-General at Havana.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Abbott and Hale, Senators elect from North Carolina, came forward and took the oath.

Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported the bill making an appropriation to carry into effect the treaty with Russia, with an amendment striking out the preamble and declaration of the rights of Congress.

On the motion of Cattell, the bill providing for the issue of $25,000,000 in 3 per cent certificates, for the purpose of retiring the outstanding compound interest notes, was taken up and passed.

The documents ratifying the 14th amendment, by the Louisiana Legislature, were presented, and Kellogg and Harris, the Senators elect, were sworn in.

The House bill to pay Henry St. Marie $10,000 for his services in procuring the arrest of John Surratt, was passed.

Sumner called up the bill making the appropriation for the purchase of Alaska, which, at the instance of the Committee on Foreign Relations, was amended by striking out the section giving the assent of Congress to the stipulations of the treaty, and the preamble claiming the joint power of the House with the President and Senate to contract treaties, and passed.

The deficiency appropriation bill was then taken up and discussed, and the appropriations for harbors and rivers increased $1,500,000.

HOUSE.

The Senate's funding bill, with several amendments, was reported from the Ways and Means Committee and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The credentials of four Representatives from Arkansas were referred to the Committee on Elections, and the House went into a Committee of the Whole on the funding bill.

The funding bill was then taken up. The first amendment of the Committee on Ways and Means, making one class of bonds to run forty years at 3 65-100 per cent., was agreed to.

The credentials of the Representatives elect from Louisiana, and the action of that State in ratifying the fourteenth amendment, were referred to the Committee on Elections.

GALVESTON.

GALVESTON, July 17.—On the evening of the 15th a riot commenced at Millican, on the Central railroad, in which a mob of about twenty-five negroes, led by a white negro school teacher and preacher, named Brooks, attempted to hang a man named William Halliday. The white citizens, headed by the sheriff and Bureau agent, prevented the execution and attempted to suppress the mob, and the attempt resulted in the death of ten or twelve of the negroes. On the 16th, yesterday, both parties had largely reinforced, and skirmishing continued throughout the day. The casualties were estimated at twenty-five. A body of troops arrived on the field last night and dispersed the rioters, killing three more of the negroes, who numbering from 300 to 500 had fortified themselves three miles from Millican, and refused to lay down their arms, until the troops dispersed them. The entire loss is between fifty and sixty. The difficulty, it is said, arose on the suspicion that a negro member of the loyal league had been hung, but who has since been found.

Write on but one side of the paper in a clear hand, and with pen and ink, giving your words and sentences plenty of room. In all cases the real name and address of the writer must accompany the manuscript. Articles which redound to personal or individual benefit, or are of a personal nature, will only be inserted as "advertisements" or "paid cards."

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 8th of August.

ATTENTION MACKERELS!—All of the brigade that are out of jail are requested to be at the Louisville depot to-day, at the arrival of the train. The object of the call is explained in the river column.

PERSONAL.—Col. C. S. Cameron, of Cross county, Ark., arrived in the city yesterday, on his way home from the New York convention, whither he went as a delegate.

THE MEETING OF THE FIRST WARD DEMOCRACY.—Owing to the shortness of the notice, and the draymen's meeting, the attendance at the call was small, and the meeting was postponed until Monday evening next, when we hope to hear of a full turn out.

THE great Democratic reunion will take place this evening. The various Ward Clubs will assemble at their places of meeting and will then unite at Court Square and march in a body to the Central Club Hall, in the Stillman Block. A grand rally of all Democrats is expected. Turn out en masse, and let our banners make Radicalism tremble to-night.

GONE TO THE MOUNTAINS.—Our friend Capt. James R. Miller, of Walker Bros. & Co., left yesterday on an excursion to his old home in the mountains of East Tennessee. After recruiting a little his physical status, and recovering from the effects of our warm climate, he will return in a few weeks to his old stand, where he will be on hand to serve his numerous friends.

WE LEARN from a private letter from Marion, Arkansas, that the case of Peter N. Burgett, charged with killing Charles Aldridge, came up for examination, before Squire Vance and Cochran, on Tuesday evening last, which resulted in the discharge of Burgett, the Court being of opinion that it was clearly a case of justifiable homicide.

WELCOME SERVICE AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—To-morrow, at 10½ o'clock a.m. and 8 p.m., the arrival of the pastor elect of the First Baptist church will be recognized by the three churches of this city as follows: 1. Welcome sermon at 10½ o'clock, by Dr. Ford. 2. Charge to the new pastor, by Dr. Graves. 3. Hand of Welcome, by Dr. Caperton. 4. Introductory pastoral sermon, at 8 p.m., by Dr. Burns.

WE have been informed by one who had the best opportunities of knowing that most of the so-called truths, in the statement detailed to us, and by us published, in our issue of last Monday, headed "A Brutal Husband," were without foundation in almost every item. As no names were mentioned, no harm has been done, but had we have acted, as we were urged to do, serious effects may have resulted.

SPLENDID SPORT.—Our friends Capt. Mahar, Judge Brown and John Toof, Esq., went on a little fishing frolic up to Mound City yesterday, on the Peosta, and after spending a few hours, returned to town, each laden with a string of elegant fish. The Peosta makes several daily trips, and we know of no pleasanter or better way of spending the lazy hours of these dull days than by taking a trip on her up to these fine fishing grounds.

A LAUDABLE CHARITY.—We are informed that the Memphis Bethel Society have made arrangements to supply the poor of our city with soup. By "the poor" we mean those whom the dullness of the times or other causes have robbed of a means of support, and are, therefore, really objects of charity. This is an undertaking in which all able should take a part. Our butchers we know, as a class, are very liberal, and are drawn on very largely by charitable institutions, and so are the regular dealers in vegetables. The supply of meat needed will be small comparatively, vegetables being what is most needed, and these can be supplied in any quantity by the gardens in the neighborhood of the city, without being really missed, and we are requested to call upon all charitably disposed persons, especially gardeners and farmers, to send any surplus that they may have to the Exchange (municipal) building, Entrance on Exchange street.

Correspondence.

MEMPHIS, July 16, 1868.

Messrs. McRea & Walker:

Gents: The undersigned have been constituted a committee to select and report to the President of the Central Democratic Club of this city, the names of such gentlemen as are willing to visit and address the clubs and other democratic meetings in the county when so requested by the President. We should be pleased to place your names upon the list.

Very respectfully,

P. T. SCRUGGS,
P. M. WINTERS,
Committee.

MEMPHIS, July 17, 1868.

Messrs. P. T. Scruggs, etc., Committee:

I have received your note, addressed to Mr. Walker and myself, requesting to place our names upon the lists of those who "are willing to visit and address the Clubs and other Democratic meetings of the county."

In my own behalf, I frankly avow to you that I have a great aversion to making speeches. I have no ambition any more for political office; and in ordinary times, when any man would be fully justified in courting as much retirement as might be agreeable to him, I should feel no hesitation in declining your request.

But this is not a political contest in the mere partizan sense of the term—it is a struggle for something more than a change of political organizations in the administration of the Government—it is a struggle for the restoration of the Government itself from the assaults of destructives, into the hands of those who will replace its guarantees, and re establish, for the benefit of all, the landmarks of constitutional obligations, now criminally abandoned.

I could say much more; but it is sufficient to invoke all our energies, when we feel, as every day all we see obliges us to feel, that all we have, of property, hope, happiness—I had almost said of honor, liberty, life itself—are imperiled, and in this contest must be preserved or lost.

I am prepared, therefore, in a private capacity, to render such service as my fellow-citizens may consider needful, to give, to speak and to do whatever may be legitimate and in harmony with the sentiment of our leaders, for the accomplishment, not merely of our own deliverance, the deliverance of our own people and our peculiar section, but the deliverance of the nation, now in the very grip of despotic power and hurrying toward the gulf of perdition.

I am, very respectfully, gentlemen, your obedient servant, D. K. McRAE.

Base Ball Club in Marion, Ark., Barbecue, Etc.

MARION, ARK., July 16, 1868.

Editors of the Appeal:

I propose to communicate very briefly the proceedings of to-day, at Marion, by which you will discover that your Arkansas friends are hopeful and joyous. The young gentlemen of this place have formed themselves into a Base Ball Club, and are rapidly becoming the most scientific in the West. Yesterday the Club gave a splendid barbecue, played a game in the public square, danced all night, and went home with the girls in the morning. The crowd assembled in the grove at 11 o'clock a.m., and were addressed by Col. L., of Memphis (late of Arkansas). All drinking saloons were closed, and everything was conducted in the most decorous manner. I learn that there are thirty-two shivalrous young knights that belong to this club—among whom are the Irwin brothers, Capt. Key, Maj. McClung and others.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—Yesterday morning about three o'clock, Mr. John Handwerker, who keeps a grocery on the corner of Carr and Fifth street, Chelsea, was awakened by hearing some one apparently boring a hole in the front door of his store. While still half asleep, he seized his gun and pointing it at the door, fired—doing, of course, no damage to anything except the door. The shot had the effect, however, of making the would-be burglars take to their heels. Mr. Handwerker rushed to the door and opened it as quickly as possible, and had the satisfaction of seeing five rascals traveling off in almost as many different directions.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

LOUISVILLE, July 17.—The river is falling, with four feet four inches in the canal.

Thermometer 98° in the shade—the hottest day of the season.

Departed—Darling, for Memphis.

PITTSBURG, July 17—Noon.—There is only twenty inches in the channel.

The weather warm and cloudy. Mercury 86°.

MEMPHIS, July 18.—Weather very hot and close. Yesterday was, without doubt, the warmest day of the season. The river is falling at the rate of four inches in twenty-four hours, and sandbars are looming up daily—acres see the light of day between the rising and the setting of the sun. There is eight feet from Cairo to St. Louis. A week hence six feet will not be found. The Ohio is very low, and not improving. The Arkansas has thirty inches to Little Rock, and White river has five feet to Augusta.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The levee was rather free of pedestrians yesterday. A stray darkey and a reporter or two were all that could be seen. Flem Calvert did not get out of the shade of the wharf boat during the day, while Larry Harmstad was not seen at all. He has secured a season ticket at the ice house.

The splendid steamer City of Alton came in last night and leaves to-day for Cairo and St. Louis. She is now a mammoth packet and is very elegant in all her appointments. Capt. Thompson is in command and we hope will become a fixture in the trade. Mr. Jim White, well known in our city, is chief clerk.

The Liberty leaves to-day at 5 p.m for White river. She carries the U. S. mail and makes all way landings, connecting with the Little Rock train at Devall's Bluff. Jim Rice is master, and in the office will be found Messrs. Harry and Sharp.

The U. S. mail steamer Ozark, Capt. Nowland, leaves for Little Rock and way points on the Arkansas on Monday evening.

The Frank Pargoud will pass up tomorrow for St. Louis.

The U. S. mail packet Luminary, Capt. Luker, will pass down to-day for Vicksburg and the bends. She is a No. 1 steamer, and her office is in charge of Capt. J. Lee Finney, one of the most popular and efficient clerks on the river.

The steamer J. P. Webb passed Evansville Wednesday, with the remains of one hundred and fifty Union soldiers from the field of Shiloh, en route for the National Cemetery at New Albany.

Our cotemporary of the Avalanche, Capt. J. O. Durff, will be home to-day. His friends are all requested to meet at the depot on the arrival of the train from Louisville. Lewis' hand carts have all been engaged to convey his carpetbags to the hotel. It is expected that every mackerel of the brigade who is out of the station house and not upon duty will be present to welcome home their illustrious chief.

The Des Arc Citizen complains of inattention on the part of Mr. H. P. Reid, mail agent of the Liberty. We think the trouble must be somewhere else, as Mr. Reid is said to be a careful officer.

The tub race came off at Little Rock as announced. The whole town was out to see the sport. There were fifteen entries for the purse, but only seven came to time, each one carrying his tub, like Diogenes, though for a very different purpose. Swain went across Poteau and beat, ahead of all, without upsetting; Charley Robinson next, but all others failed to cross without upsetting, and three or four of the party did not cross at all. The great fun was in seeing the upsetting of the contestants and their efforts to get back into their tubs, which none were able to accomplish.

The Fort Smith Herald of the 11th says: The river is now at low water mark. The Van Buren came up as far as Spadra last week, and put out her freight and went back to Little Rock. We expect our merchants will have to order their goods over again.

The H. M. Shreve has arrived at St. Louis, after making a trip to Fort Stevenson and back—a distance of over 4000 miles—in twenty-six days.

Capt. Abe McPike was thrown out of his buggy at St. Louis, on Wednesday, and broke his leg. This is the third time this year he has broken that leg.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

We always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, Seven Thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the appreciated and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, which instrument is fully warranted for five years.

The banking house of Thos F. Morris, on Wall street, was yesterday afternoon robbed of $21,000 in 5-20 bonds. No clue to the robbers.

There are now 1263 Mormons at Castle Garden awaiting transportation to Utah, and 2100 more expected from Europe soon.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, July 17, 1868.

The intensely hot weather which now prevails will bring the growing crops to maturity much earlier than usual, and it would not astonish us to see new cotton in market at least two weeks sooner than last year. All things considered, we may look for an early fall's business. Our anticipations relative to the crop of wheat, however, will not we fear be realized. It is not coming to market in quantities enough to suggest a large yield. Prices keep up well under the demand from our local mills, which are steadily at work and buy all the choice coming in, finding the supply inadequate to keep them running for more than a few days in advance. Our planters should by all means send their grain to market as fast as possible, as it is not probable that prices will be maintained after the Northern crop begins to come in rapidly, as it will soon do, and floor takes another step downwards.

Money matters remain as they were yesterday. Exchange is steady with fair supply. Buying on New York at par to ¼ premium. Selling on New York at ¼ premium, and on points North and West at ½ premium.

Stocks and Bonds are quiet with no offerings. We quote nominally as follows: Memphis Gas Company stock, $1 50. Mississippi Central Railroad, 1st mortgage bonds 58c; 2d do. 40c. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage bonds, 50c. Memphis and Charleston stock, 56c. Memphis and Louisville, 1st mortgage bonds, 80 to 81c; 2d do. 20c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 40c. City Bonds are in demand but there is none on the market. There is several thousand dollars of the new bonds at the Mayor's office, awaiting the arrival of the Mayor to be signed, and which should have been issued nearly two weeks ago. The delay occasioned by Mr. Leftwich's absence has caused rather a depressed feeling in both Bonds and Scrip. It will be but temporary we hope, for until his arrival, however, Scrip will not improve. We quote it at 72 to 74c, buying. Selling at 75 to 77c. As soon as it can be immediately turned into interest-bearing bonds, we look for a material advance.

County Warrants are dull. There is no means of knowing how much of this money is afloat, though we learn that the county clerk, Mr. Lougue, is at work on an estimate of the financial condition of the county, which will, we presume, be given to the public at no distant day. We quote at 50 to 54c, buying; selling at 55 to 57c.

Police Scrip is quiet, with liberal offerings and light demand. Buying at 70 to 75c; selling at 75 to 80c.

Gold goes up steadily, opening to-day in New York at 142¼, and closing at 143¼. We quote, buying 141 to 142; selling at 142½ to 143.

The following are the New York Stock Exchange quotations: Coupons '81, 14½; do '62, 14; do '64, 10½; do '65, 12; new issue, 9½; do '67, 9½; 10-40s, 8½; 7-30s, 2d and 3d, 9½; Old Tennessees, 68½; new do 68¾.

Cotton in Liverpool was quiet at the opening to-day—Uplands 11 1-4; Orleans 11½d; and at noon was easier—Uplands 11 to 11 1-4; Orleans 11¼. The market closed easier. Stock afloat 713,000 bales, of which 21,000 is American. Sales for the week 47,000 bales. Of this amount 9000 were taken for export and 2000 by speculators. Stock on hand 553,000, of which 329,000 is American.

In New York at the opening Cotton was dull and tending downwards—Uplands 31½ to 31¾c. It was dull at noon with 32c given for Middlings, and at the close was quiet but firm—Middlings 31½ to 32c, with other grades unchanged. Sales 800 bales.

Our market was inactive. We could learn of no sales worth noting—Middlings would bring 30c, but there is none in market.

IMPORTANT to PLANTERS.

FRIAR'S POINT, MISS., June 19, 1868.

Messrs. MANSFIELD & HIGBEE,

Druggists, Memphis, Tennessee:

GENTLEMEN: You ask me for my statement relative to your unrivaled LINIMENT for CHARBONS in HORSES and MULES, which you style

"MAGIC ARNICA LINIMENT."

I have used your Liniment in about two dozen cases with perfect success. I had lost all hope of a remedy, but believe your discovery is "THE REMEDY." I have not failed in a single case in which I have applied your Liniment. I believe it a valuable discovery. Think every planter should provide himself with the Magic Arnica Liniment. No planter should be without your remedy where this terrible disease prevails. I have supplied each of my plantations. My supervisors report favorable upon every trial.

Very respectfully, yours, etc.
